

MAURY DRY GOODS CO.

Hot Weather Specials for the Week End and Next Monday

1 lot of Ladies' Palm Beach and Kool Cloth Suits, $10 values, choice $7.95
 New line of White Tub Skirts, sizes up to 36 waist, very extra values at $1.25, $1.50 and $2.00
 New line of Ladies' White Wash Waists, all white and white with contrasting trimmings, sizes 36 to 46, made of good quality Voile, Organdie $1.00
 Lisle, Silk Lisle and Silk Gauze Vests, at 15c, 25c 50c
 1 lot Ladies' Light Weight Knit Union Suits, special at 25c and 35c
 Men's Cool Crash and Palm Beach Suits, in light and dark shades, suit $6.00
 Men's Summer Shirts, Sport Shirts, the best values to be had at 50c and $1.00
 1 lot of Lorraine Printed Tissues and Figured Voiles, 25c values 15c
 New line of Sport Stripes, at 25c, 35c and 50c
 White Skirting, in P. K. Oxford Cloths and fancy white patterns 25c, 35c and 50c

Summer Silks

Beautiful assortment of Summer Silks, showing the new weaves and color combinations, prices range from, per yd. 50c to $2.00

Add Another Room to Your House

By using one of our Aerolux Porch Shades—keeps out light let in air. Make the porch a cool sitting room for Summer days. A sleeping room for Summer nights.

Crex, Deltex and Rag Rugs

The Ideal Rugs for Summer, all sizes in stock from 9x12 to small mat. 1 lot of Jap. Stenciled Rugs, size 9x12, at $2.98

White Canvas Pumps for Ladies' and Children

Children's Pumps 75c to $1.50
 Ladies' Pumps $1.50 to $3.50

Men's, Ladies' and Children's White Tennis Slippers

Men's Canvas Palm Beach Oxfords, per pair $2.50 and $3.00
 Men's and Ladies' Bathing Suits $1.50 to $5.00

YOU ARE ALWAYS WELCOME AT OUR STORE

PERSONALS.

Mrs. J. M. Totty spent Thursday in Nashville.
 Miss Docie Berry, of Santa Fe, was in the city Thursday.
 Miss Bessie Lee Billington has returned from a visit to Pulaski.
 Miss Lula Scott, of Andrews, was shopping in the city Thursday.
 Mrs. W. I. Sowell has returned from a visit to her sister at Fayetteville.
 Hugh Barker has returned to Montgomery, Ala., after a visit to relatives in the city.
 Mrs. Nathaniel Rhea and Mrs. Will Rhea, of Glendale, were visiting in town Wednesday.
 Miss Josephine Patterson and mother, of Henryville, were shopping in the city Thursday.
 Miss Hattie Follis, of Birmingham, is the guest of Misses Naomi and Alayne Estes this week.
 Mrs. C. R. Denton and daughter, Miss Lillian, of Groveland, were visiting in the city Thursday.
 Anne Leroy Wilkes and Anne Bruce Smith, of Culleoka, and Howard Sherrill, of Delrose, are spending the week-end with J. D. Sugg, Jr., at Coldwater, Tenn.
 Mrs. George W. Brown, of Mt. Pleasant, was visiting in the city Friday.
 Misses Sina Russell and Hattie Nichols, of Spring Hill, are visiting Miss Marguerite Page.
 Mrs. W. S. McCall and little daughter, left Thursday for a visit to relatives in Tusculum.
 Frank Palmer has returned to Tusculum, after a visit to Columbia friends and relatives.
 Mrs. C. E. Morton has returned home, after a visit to her mother, Mrs. E. Jones, at Cross Bridges.
 Algie Hodge has returned to his home at Marshall, Texas, after several weeks' visiting to relatives in the city.
 Miss Nell Easterday, of Memphis, is the attractive guest of Miss Beulah Utley, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. A. O. Utley. Miss Easterday will remain several weeks with Miss Utley, and when she returns home Miss Utley will accompany her.
 Misses Mary Sue and Eva Sharber have returned from a delightful visit to Miss Estelle Johnson, at Rock Springs.
 Little Miss Eoline Johnson is visiting her cousins, Marian and Marjorie Jones. She came to attend the birthday celebration of Marian Jones, which occurred Wednesday afternoon.
 Misses Eleanor and Cooper Barber are visiting their uncle Bentley Bulard, in Memphis. From there they will go to Dallas, Texas, to spend the remainder of the summer with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Barber.
 Prof. D. M. Galloway has returned from Nashville, where he has been attending the bedside of his mother, Mrs. Annie D. Galloway, who was operated on for the appendicitis at St. Thomas Hospital. Mr. Galloway reports his mother as having stood the operation fine and doing nicely.
 Mrs. J. W. Denham will spend the next week in Pulaski.
 Mrs. R. J. Smith has returned from a visit to friends and relatives in Nashville.
 Miss Lizzie B. Hight, of Hubbard, Texas, is visiting Mrs. Clay Hight, near Glendale.
 Misses Willie E. and Lillie B. Jones, of Williamsport, are spending the week-end with Miss Jewel Church.
 Kernan Akin and Miss Melvin Akin, and Mr. Akin, of Franklin, were guests of relatives at Hampshire, Sunday.
 Maury Leftwich, of Memphis, has been the guest of his grandmother, Mrs. Jennie Akin, at Hampshire. He has returned home.
 Miss Etta Loftin has returned from the American School of Osteopathy Hospital, of Kirksville, Mo., where she successfully underwent an operation for complete ankylosis and dislocation of both hips. Miss Loftin was greatly benefited by the operation, now having good motion in the right hip. After several days' rest, she will return for another operation.
 C. B. Fox, of Glendale, spent Tuesday in the city.
 Herman Roach visited relatives at Water Valley Sunday.
 Mrs. W. S. Fleming, Jr. and son, W. S., are visiting Mrs. Emmett Yokely, at Spring Hill.
 Miss Audrey Baker, of Shady Grove, was visiting in the city Tuesday.
 Mrs. Tom Cathey, of Dark's Mill, spent Monday in the city shopping.
 Mr. T. S. Richardson spent Sunday with his family in Nashville, where they are spending several weeks.
 Mr. and Mrs. Barnes Thomas, of Jackson, Tenn., are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Thomas, on the Mt. Pleasant pike.
 Miss Ella Wilkes, of Culleoka, is at Mammoth Cave, Ky., for a visit.
 Mrs. F. J. Collins, of Summertown, spent Wednesday in the city.
 Mrs. John Dixon, of McCain's, was shopping in the city Wednesday.
 Miss Anne Frakes and two brothers, James and Gordon, of Gallatin, are visiting Mrs. E. H. Frakes.
 Misses Vera, Ruth and Virginia Sowell are visiting their aunt, Mrs. McCutchen, at Franklin.
 Master Granville Arthur and sister, Elsie, are visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Arthur, at Loretto.
 Miss Clayton Liggett has returned to her home at Lewisburg after a pleasant visit to friends in the city and county.
 Mrs. A. O. Goodrich, Mrs. J. G. Breen and children, Edward and Elizabeth, of Nashville, are the guests of Mrs. Fannie Blair for a few days.
 Mrs. Charles Peden and two daughters, Misses Catherine and Virginia, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Due at Bigbyville.
 Miss R. Gertrude Erwin left Wednesday morning for San Antonio, Texas. Miss Erwin will spend the summer in the Southwest with her mother's relatives, the "Lone Star" being her birth state. Austin, Seguin,

San Antonio, San Marcus, Kingsbury and Luling are points included in her visit.

Miss Vera Mote has returned to her home at New Decatur, Ala. She was accompanied by her cousins, Misses Margaret, Beatrice and Claude Compton.

Miss Charlotte Gardner is visiting friends at Evansville, Ind.
 Misses Janie and Julia Orman, of Birmingham, Ala., are visiting for a few days their sister, Mrs. F. R. Odil, of Spring Hill.

Mrs. J. W. Sharber and daughters have returned home, after a very pleasant visit to relatives and friends in Wilder, Tenn.

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Roseman, D. S., Jr., Miss Margaret Roseman and Mrs. O. W. Crutcher, of Athens, Ala., motored to Columbia Thursday to visit Dr. Jas. Lewis.

HOUSE PAINT AT LOW PRICE

Climax brand prepared house paint, a first-class article at a low price, $1.75 per gallon.
 11 Street, Martin & Vaughan Co.

HEIR CLAIMS FEES ARE FAR TOO HIGH

PHILIP LOUIS EWALD FILES OBJECTION IN CHANCERY COURT.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 29.—Protesting that fees aggregating nearly $400,000 in winding up the estate of the late Louis P. Ewald, wealthy iron master of Louisville and St. Louis, were excessive, Philip Louis Ewald, eldest son of the deceased, has filed objections with Judge Samuel B. Kirby in chancery court. Objection is made to allowances granted to E. L. Williams, commissioner of the Jefferson circuit court, as follows: Fidelity & Columbia Trust company, as executor, 5 per cent, and as trustee, 5 per cent, or an aggregate fee of $100,000; a fee of $75,000 allowed the estate of the late Judge P. B. Muir and Charles H. Gibson, attorneys for the heirs; a fee of $25,000 allowed Attorney Thomas A. Barker, guardian ad litem of the Ewald children, and a fee of $7,500 claimed by Commissioner Williams. The court announced a review of the settlement would be granted.

CHATTANOOGA WHITE LIME

Fresh car of Chattanooga white lime just in.
 11 Street, Martin & Vaughan Co.

DR. R. M. W. BLACK OFF TO NEW YORK

RECTOR OF ST. PETER'S TO FILL PULPIT OF ST. MATHEWS CHURCH.

Dr. R. M. W. Black, rector of St. Peter's Episcopal church, left Wednesday afternoon for Brooklyn, New York, where for the months of July and August he will preach at St. Mathews church. Dr. Black has been granted leave by the vestry of his parish. The compliment implied in the call to the work of his cosmopolitan church is quite a distinct one and very gratifying to the members of Dr. Black's parish and his many friends here. His family have gone to North Carolina, where they will spend the two months in the old home.

BIRTHS.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Kirk are the proud parents of a fine baby girl that came to their home Thursday.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS.

Emmet Hickman Murphy, Emmet Hickman Murphy, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Phineas Murphy, died Thursday morning at eleven o'clock at the residence, seven miles from Columbia, on the Mooresville pike, after a week's illness. The little fellow was one of the twins born to Mr. and Mrs. Murphy about a year ago, and the parents have the deepest sympathy of a host of friends in this their sad loss. Prayers were said at Rose Hill cemetery this morning at nine o'clock, by Elder G. C. Brewer. Interment in the family square. Maury Undertaking Co., in charge.

Mary Brown Cozart, Mary Brown Cozart, infant of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cozart, died Sunday morning at 5 o'clock. Prayer was said at Rose Hill cemetery at 10 o'clock by Dr. Grover C. Brewer. Maury Undertaking Co., directors in charge.

William Douglas, William Douglas, the eleven-month-old son of M. and Mrs. W. L. Douglas, died this morning at 5 o'clock. The funeral services will be held at the McKissack graveyard, at 10 o'clock Tuesday. In their bereavement the parents have the sympathy of a large circle of friends. Oakes & Nichols, directors in charge.

Mrs. Kate W. Armistead, Mrs. Kate Washington Armistead, wife of J. W. Armistead, died on Monday morning at 9:30 o'clock at her residence, eight miles out on the Nashville pike. She was forty years of age and has been in bad health for several years. She was a consistent and devoted member of the Methodist church almost all of her life and was a splendid woman and a true Christian, ready at all times to serve her Savior.

Mrs. Armistead is survived by her husband and four children, Misses Mary, Laura, Catherine and John.

Prayers were said this (Tuesday) morning at the residence by Rev. Dr. Wright and the remains were shipped on the 8:45 train to Nashville, where funeral services will take place at Christ's church, with the interment in Mt. Olivet.

The following named friends acted as pallbearers: Joe Chapman, J. T. Fry, D. J. Whitney, C. A. Beal, James T. Kinnard and R. L. Hays. Maury Undertaking company, in charge.

Walter W. Jones, Walter W. Jones, one of the most highly esteemed citizens of the Second district, died at his home twelve miles out on the Carter's Creek pike on Monday night. He has been in bad health for some time and his death was not unexpected. Mr. Jones was very popular and the high esteem in which he was held by his neighbors was attested by the large concourse of people who followed the remains to their last resting place.

He was a consistent and devoted member of the Christian church and a very honorable man. He is survived by his wife and five children, three sons, and two daughters, as follows: Jack, James, Ulysses and Mary and Maggie. He was 44 years of age. The funeral was held at Sharp cemetery, conducted by Elder Ned Derryberry and the interment was in the family square. Maury Undertaking Co., in charge.

Child of Mr. and Mrs. Smith, The infant of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Smith died on Wednesday morning at the residence at Rally Hill, after an illness of a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Smith have the deepest sympathy of the entire community over their loss. Funeral services were conducted Thursday morning at the Morton cemetery by Elder A. C. Williams of the Christian church. Interment in the family square. Maury Undertaking Co., in charge.

William Jefferson Harbison, Jr., The little son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Harbison, died at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon as the result of a long illness from colitis. The little fellow was only twenty months of age and was an unusually bright child, the joy of his parents. His life has hung by a thread for several days and little hope entertained for his recovery. In their hour of deep affliction Mr. and Mrs. Harbison will have the genuine sympathy of a host of friends and numerous relatives. The funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

AROUND TOWN.

FOR SALE—Bargain Upright piano, almost new; worth $400, will take $200. Batey organ in good repair, $40.—MRS. MARY BARNETT HINE. d38|eod8t|wkyit

The Circus Is Coming To Town

Peg O' the Ring

The greatest serial picture ever filmed, featuring Eddie Polo, Ruth Stonehouse, Frances Ford, Grace Cunard and hundreds of Acrobats, Clowns and Gymnasts from Barnum & Bailey, Ringling Bros. and Hagenback & Wallace's Circuses. See the wild animals, the fat lady and giant. A picture that will make you remember the days of your youth.

VOGUE EVERY MONDAY FOR 15 WEEKS Beginning July 3rd

SOCIETY.

Corcoran-Pilkinton.

A wedding of much interest to the contracting parties was solemnized Thursday evening at eight o'clock at the home of Rev. O. A. Utley, when Miss Lillie May Corcoran and Robert E. Pilkinton were united in marriage by Dr. Utley, in the presence of many friends and relatives. Miss Beulah Utley, the accomplished daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Utley, presided at the piano and played Mendelssohn's wedding march as the young couple entered the parlor, where the ceremony was said. After the ceremony was over and the many compliments passed, the happy couple returned to their home on McKay street.

Librarians for Next Week.

The following ladies will have charge of the Students' Circulating Library the coming week: Monday, Mrs. Will Dale, Jr.; Wednesday, Mrs. Eastin Littlefield; Saturday, Mrs. W. B. Greenlaw. The following books have been added to the library:

"Our Miss York," by Morris; "The Island of Surprise," Brady; "Jerusalem," Lagerlof; "Just David," Eleanor H. Porter; "The Amateur, Norris; "The Fall of a Nation," Dixon; "The Daredevil," Davies; "People Like That," Kate Langley Bosher; "A Man's Reach," Robins; "The Secret of the Hoenzollerns," Graves; "The Light That Lies," McCutcheon; "The Husband's Purse," Martin; "A Cathedral Singer," James Lane Allen; "The Crimson Gardenia," Rex Beach.

There's no better way to forget the temperature and enjoy a pleasant afternoon than to bury yourself in an interesting book, and you will have some five hundred at your disposal for the expenditure of only $1.50 per year or $1.00 for six months, or 50 cents for three months. Library open from three-thirty to six Mondays, Wednesdays and Saturdays on the second floor of the Maury Dry Goods Co.

In Honor of Miss Easterday.

Miss Beulah Utley entertained Monday evening at her home on South High street in honor of her guest, Miss Nell Easterday, of Memphis. Many games were played and at a late hour, refreshments were served.

Rook Party.

Miss Mary Catherine Greenlaw entertained most charmingly Tuesday afternoon at a beautifully appointed rook party. The game was played at four tables and at the conclusion of a most interesting game a lunch course was served. The decorations were summer flowers and potted plants.

Miss Gordon Entertains.

Miss Mary Gordon charmingly entertained Tuesday morning at a five hundred card party at the Woman's Exchange. The tables were used in playing the game, and at the noon hour a two-course lunch was served on the card tables. The tea room was artistically decorated in summer flowers.

Goodrich-Williby.

Wilson Goodrich and Miss Katie Williby, of Nashville, were united in marriage at the home of the groom's cousin, Miss Henrietta Rogers, on Thirteenth street, Tuesday afternoon. The bride was an attractive young lady, dressed in a traveling suit and hat to harmonize and her flowers were sweet peas.

The groom is a popular young business man of Nashville.

After the ceremony a delicious ice course was served.

The couple left for their future home in Nashville, on the five o'clock train.

Gilbert-Milam.

On Wednesday afternoon at five o'clock the wedding of Miss Grace Beatrice Milam and Dr. Claude Frank Gilbert was beautifully solemnized at the home of the bride, before relatives and a few intimate friends.

For the occasion the house was artistically decorated, the color motif of pink and white predominating. Quantities of sweet peas and roses, combined with ferns and potted plants, were effectively arranged.

A beautiful pre-nuptial program was rendered, Miss Camille Herndon presiding at the piano and Miss Ables Sugg, of Nashville, sweetly sang "All Mine Alone," by Phillips and "O, Perfect Love," by Kramer.

The bridal party entered to the soft strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Miss Herndon and before an altar of ferns the impressive ring ceremony was performed by Rev. R. M. W. Black.

Mrs. Horace W. Milam, matron of honor, entered first, followed by little Horace Milam, Jr., nephew of the bride, who carried the wedding ring in the heart of a lily.

The bride entered on the arm of her brother, Mr. Horace W. Milam, of Birmingham, who gave her in marriage and were met at the altar by the groom and Mr. Robert L. Hamilton, of Savannah, who acted as best man.

The bride was lovely in her bridal costume of white lingerie, with real lace trimmings and a large picture hat of white silk crepe, with touches of pink. She carried a shower bouquet of brides' roses and valley lilies.

The matron of honor was becomingly gowned in white tulle over pink silk and pink tulle hat to harmonize and carried an arm bouquet of Killarney roses.

The little ring-bearer wore a white velvet suit.

The bride presents, testifying the popularity of the bride and groom, were on display in the dining room and consisted of silver, cut glass, hand-painted china and several handsome checks. During the ceremony congratulations by telegram were received from friends and relatives throughout the state.

The bride is the attractive daughter of Mrs. W. B. Milam, and is prominently connected in Nashville and throughout the state of Tennessee.

The groom is a prominent young physician of Mississippi, of rising reputation.

Following the ceremony, Dr. and Mrs. Gilbert left for a brief bridal trip, the bride's going-away suit being of tan faille silk and rose trimmings and shoes to harmonize and a black bisaric hat, with rose trimmings. On their return the will be at home in Savannah, Tenn., where their many friends wish for them the greatest of happiness.

Out-of-town guests to the Gilbert-Milam wedding were Misses Louise Adamson and Ables Sugg, of Nashville; Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Milam and children, of Birmingham, and Mr. Robert L. Hamilton, of Savannah.

Epworth League.

The young people of Hampshire were delightfully entertained on Wednesday evening by the Epworth League. The porches and yard were decorated with Japanese lanterns and flowers for the occasion. Old-time music was furnished by piano and violin. At a late hour delightful refreshments were served.

At Rook.

Misses Carrie and Irene Williams were the charming hostess Wednesday afternoon at their beautiful suburban home in West End at an attractively appointed rook party. The guest list numbered a sufficient amount to require eight tables to play a most interesting game of rook, at the conclusion of which an elegant lunch course was served. The Williams home was made most attractive in its decorations of cut flowers and green foliage plants, practically all of which were from the attractive flower gardens of the hostesses.

THRESHERMEN SUPPLIES

Oils, belting and brass fittings.
 11 Street, Martin & Vaughan Co.